

Revolutionary Trails Council 100th Anniversary Events

- The 100th edition of the annual Eagle Scout Dinner on May 24 will recognize nearly 70 young men who attained Scouting's highest rank in 2009.
- The 100th Anniversary Volunteer Celebration at Hart's Hill Inn on June 7th. In addition to recognizing the accomplishments of its current members, the council will present several veteran volunteers with a special distinction-the "Scouter of the Century Award".
- The public is invited to join Scouting on June 11, 12, and 13 at Camp Russell on White Lake for a Trailblazer Adventure Program. This program, designed to introduce people to the great outdoors, is a result of a partnership between the US Sportsmen's Alliance, local businesses, and the Boy Scouts of America.
- Alumni Reception at Cedarlands Scout Reservation, Camp Russell, and Camp Kingsley for Scouting alumni. Dates to be announced soon!
- A live telecast/webcast of the main stage show of the 100th Anniversary National Scout Jamboree.
- The marquee event of the local 100th Anniversary Celebration will be a Scouting "EXPO" on October 1, 2, and 3. The event will be designed like a Scouting theme park and will feature interactive displays from local businesses and civic organizations, stage shows, and fireworks.
