

Revolutionary Trails Council, BSA Summer Camps

Site Reservation and Campsite Deposit Policy

Campsites and treks are reserved on a first come first served basis. Deposits can be paid while at camp or at the Council Office for the following year. Units at camp have until they leave on Saturday to reserve the same site for the same week for the following year. After that, the first unit paying a deposit can reserve the site. Units can sign up to be placed on a waiting list if they wish to switch sites.

Camp Deposit

A $100 non-refundable, but is transferable to another unit/trek/campsite for the same camping season. This cannot be applied to Camper Fees either.

Trek Deposits

A $150 non-refundable, but is transferable to another unit/trek/campsite for the same camping season. This cannot be applied to Camper Fees either.

The Camps reserve the right to reassign a campsite on the basis of group size**

When reserving a campsite, please note that Cedarlands offers two styles of sites, wilderness sites (Bring your own tents) and tent sites (standard wall tents, cots, platforms). All sites have a source of potable water, a latrine, a raised earth fire alters, a wash stand, and one picnic table per patrol site.

Camp Fees and Payments

The Council Executive Board upon the recommendations of the Council Camping Committee set all camp fees. These fees are defrayed by the sale of popcorn and the Councils Friends of Scouting Campaign. Camperships are available to scouts in the Revolutionary Trails Council who need assistance. Campership applications are available to the Council Office and on the website www.scouting.cny.org.
