PRESS RELEASE

Scout Day on the Adirondack Railroad

(Remsen, NY) – Scouts from throughout Central New York gathered at the Remsen Station in Utica on (DATE) for a “HOBO TRAIN RIDE” to Remsen. 500 individuals participated.

Local Scouts, their parents, siblings, and friends boarded the train for a 2 hour ride to Remsen. Once in Remsen, participants enjoyed a day of activities including the Railroading Merit Badge, tours of the Roundhouse and Engine House, and a “Hobo Lunch”.

Over 25 volunteers from throughout the area helped make the event possible.

For nearly 100 years the Boy Scouts of America has provided youth leadership and character development programs. The Revolutionary Trails Council today serves nearly 8,000 youth through the leadership of 2,000 volunteers throughout central New York. Learn more about Scouting at www.scouting.org or the Revolutionary Trails Council at www.scoutingcny.org.
